VIII. OTHER COMMITTEES/ UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE REPORTS

IX. UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

X. NEW BUSINESS

SS0708009

Whereas, the Student Senate Finance Committee and the Student Senate as a whole are committed to funding and supporting quality student programming, and

Whereas, Family Day has been consistently recognized by the student body, families of students, faculty, and staff as being one prime example of such programming, and

Whereas, the Student Senate has also historically recognized the importance of Family Day for students and their families;

Therefore, be it resolved that the requested amount of $12,000 be allocated to Family Day 2007, and

Be it further resolved that because the $12,000 contribution would make the Student Senate the largest single financial supporter of Family Day, the individuals and groups involved in the planning and execution of said event are strongly urged to consider advertising the Student Senate sponsorship by featuring the Student Senate logo on Family Day banners, posters, and other promotional materials.

Be it finally resolved that the information contained within this motion be passed on to interested parties upon approval.

Moved by: Senator Meier

Seconded by: Director Schultz

Approved by the Finance Committee

-Postponed for next week

SS0708010

Whereas, the Diversity Issues and Women's Initiatives Committee does not currently have a co-director,

Whereas, Amy Bohrer is interested in the position and is qualified,

Therefore be it resolved that Amy Bohrer be appointed as the Co-Director of the Diversity Issues and Women's Initiatives Committee for the academic year of 2007-2008.

Moved by: Vice President Deick

Seconded by: President Brandt

-Motion passes

SS0708011

Whereas, there is currently a vacant director position for the Shared Governance committee,

Whereas, as Cindy Bendix has applied for the position as seems to be well qualified for the position,

Therefore be it resolved that Cindy Bendix be appointed as the Director of the Shared Governance Committee for the academic year of 2007-2008.

Moved by: Vice President Deick

Seconded by: President Brandt

-Motion passes

- XI. ADDITIONAL ITEMS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS:
